

Associations need to be allowed to fax dues paying members solicitations. This clearly shows an established business relationship and that should be allowed in this regulation.